

2016-'17 Educational Assembly Tour San Diego County

We were honored to be invited to such wonderful elementary schools in San Diego County for our educational assemblies this last year. Each assembly was provided at no cost to the schools, as they were sponsored and donated by their local McDonald's restaurant. Community partnership and giving back have always been very important to us.

Feedback from San Diego County Schools

"Thank you for providing such a dynamic assembly! Students really need this type of assembly! They are still talking about it. It was interactive and well paced, engaging and enjoyable. Thank you for investing in the lives of our students." - Bancroft Elementary

"The kids were engaged and left very excited to utilize what they learned. Teachers had nothing but positive feedback about the show." - Valley Vista Elementary

"The students were able to tie your program into their school's culture. It is programs and assemblies such as yours that help to make school fun for students!" - Carlton Hills School.

"We were very impressed with the thought, practice, and level of entertainment and education that was put into the show. We would love to have your assembly back and would definitely recommend this to other schools!" - King Chavez Academy

"It was exciting how attentive and engaged our students were during the assembly. Our students chatted about what they had learned during the assembly throughout the day." - Joli Ann Leichtag Elementary

"This production was entertaining and yet relevant to all ages of our students. I received rave reviews from both children and teachers alike." - Zamorano Elementary

"Thank you for coming to Mission Elementary and for helping make our school great! We appreciate how McDonald's leads by example to give back to the community to help improve it. We hope to have your return again soon!" - Mission Elementary
